IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THE PROPOSER ON COMPLETION OF THIS PROPOSAL FORM

1. DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

You have a duty to disclose relevant information to the insurer, when completing this proposal form and at other times during the policy period (for example when you renew the insurance or request a change to the policy terms). Your duty is described below:

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

2. PRIVACY

At Lion Underwriting Pty Ltd (Lion Underwriting) we are committed to protecting your privacy. The information provided will be treated in confidence and, where relevant, in compliance with the Privacy Act 1988. We collect, use and disclose your personal information, and in some cases personal or sensitive information about you, to assess your application and provide a quote for the insurance cover (including obtaining risk carrier confirmation where necessary), on behalf of the insurer. This information is used to issue and administer your policy, to provide insurance services, and, where appropriate, to assist in the assessment of a claim. For some classes of insurance, the underwriter may use sensitive personal data about you where this is necessary to decide whether it is willing to insure you and on what terms (for example criminal convictions). We also may use it to:

- Contact you to provide information about your insurance policy;
- Deal with brokers, risk carriers and reinsurers; and
- Operate our business including offering information and to market and promote our services to you.

If you don't provide us with full information, we may not be able to provide you with any, some, or all of the features of our products or services.

This may include information collected from third parties such as your insurance broker.

We provide information such as your personal details and business circumstances to relevant third parties including your insurance carriers, brokers, third-party claims adjusters, fraud detection and prevention services, reinsurance companies and regulatory authorities. In the course of performing our obligation to you, this information may be disclosed to agents and service providers appointed by us, Insurers, (including their re-insurers, legal advisers, loss adjusters or agents). Where such sensitive personal information relates to anyone other than you, you must obtain the explicit consent of the person to whom the information relates both to the disclosure of such information to us and its use by us as set out above.

We do not trade, rent, or sell your information. We may disclose your information to recipients in Australia, UK, Singapore, Japan, USA, People's Republic of China and Switzerland for the purpose of providing our services to you. If a recipient is not regulated by laws which protect your information in a way that is similar to the Privacy Act, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that they protect your information in the same way we do or seek your consent before disclosing your information to them.

You have the right to request for a copy of your information and to request to have any inaccuracies corrected.

Our Privacy Policy contains more information about how to access and correct the information we hold about you and how to make a privacy related complaint, including how we will deal with it. Ask us for a copy by contacting us on (07) 3445 6300 or visiting our website (www.lionunderwriting.com.au).

3. PRESENTATION

This proposal form must be completed and signed by an authorised individual, a partner, principal or director of the Proposer.

All questions must be answered. If not applicable, state N/A.

If there is insufficient space to provide answers, additional information should be provided on the Proposer's letter-headed paper.

Where applicable to the Proposer's business, product/services brochures, standard contract conditions, terms and conditions, waivers and disclaimers, commercial agreements and letters of appointment should be provided.

Failure to present insurers with information in an appropriate manner may adversely influence the ability or willingness of insurers to offer terms.

4. GUIDANCE

The contract of insurance will be arranged by Lion Underwriting Pty Ltd (ABN 33 604 592 467, AFSL 491793) acting as agent for the relevant insurer (Insurer). We do not act as your agent. When acting as agent of the insurer, we may place the policy with an APRA-regulated insurance company, certain underwriters at Lloyd's of London or a direct offshore foreign insurer or unauthorised foreign insurer (subject to law). When we act under a binder, we will notify your broker of this arrangement. A binder agreement allows us to issue the policy and handle claims as if we are the insurer. In other cases, we may place your policy on an 'open market' basis.

The precise scope and breadth of policy coverage is subject to the specific terms and conditions of the policy wording. You should refer to the policy wording for full information, including in relation to:

- the basis on which claims can be made;
- your cancellation rights; and
- the identity of the parties covered under this insurance.

If in doubt as to the meaning of any question contained within this proposal form or the issues raised in Disclosure and/ or Presentation, advice should be sought from Lion Underwriting via your insurance broker.
